Subject: YOU WILL BE HEARING FROM OUR ATTORNEY

Mr Engel,

Despite our efforts to resolve your past due account, payment on this account has still not been made.

We are informing you that we have run out of patience and that this matter has now been turned over to our lawyer in the united states and legal action will be introduced. Such an action may also adversely affect your credit rating.

Thank you

Sincerely,

Subject: FINAL NOTICE BEFORE LEGAL ACTION

Mr Engel,

We have repeatedly advised you of your long overdue balance in the amount of $724,025. Since you have not made payment we have turned this matter over to our attorney and instructed them to commence suit without further delay.

There is still time, however, to avoid suit if you contact us within the next 5 working days. This will be your final opportunity to resolve matters without the expense of court proceedings.

Sincerely,

Keith Rennie

Subject: NOTICE OF LITIGATION

Mr Engel,

All of our efforts to settle this matter amicably have been unsuccessful. We have made numerous calls and, to date, have not had the courtesy of a call back. We have delayed legal proceedings up to now based on your assurances that we would be paid in full by 27th October 2011.

Please be advised that you have left us no alternative but to file suit immediately. We have attempted to be understanding of your cash flow problems as you stated but our patience has now reached an end.

This matter is being turned over to our attorney. While I regret the necessity of this action I must advise you to govern yourself accordingly.

Regards,

Keith,

We are deeply sorry for the delay and the damages this must have caused your company. The reason for this delay is because of the economic situation of the country presently but we promise to have payments sent to your company not later than the 27th of this month.

Please bear with us as we wish to resolve this issue amicably.

Sincerely,

John J. Engel,
